

Grilled Cheese
By Colonel Alonzo Fugate, NBCT

There's an eyeball on my grilled cheese sandwich
Staring up at me.
It's round and blue and gooey
And I think that it can see!

There's an eyeball on my grilled cheese sandwich!
How did it get there?
I want to eat my sandwich
But I'm creeped out by its stare!

There's an eyeball on my grilled cheese sandwich
I wonder how it tastes.
I ponder - if I threw it out
Then would it be a waste?

There's an eyeball on my grilled cheese sandwich
Now what will I do?
'Cause I've only got one eyeball
And I see, you have two!
