

Lost Pet

By Colonel Alonzo Fugate, NBCT

Something's slithering in my desk
It's rattling 'cross all of my books.
Something's slithering in my desk
And the teacher is giving me looks.

Something's hissing in my desk
It senses that I am near
Something's hissing in my desk
And I wish that I wasn't here.

Something's living in my desk
And all I can do is shake
For though the class searched all morning
I think that I found our pet snake!
