

DEDICATION

Pour l'encouragement qu'ils m'ont toujours donné, je dédie ce travail à ma mère, Maria, qui la première m'a parlé de Dieu, et à mon frère, René."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A most heartfelt thank you to: Père Yves Congar, o.p. for his personal involvement in this dissertation and for the inspiration I received in studying his works; Dr. J. Robert Nelson, of Boston University, for his support and advice, and for the Christ-like dedication which at all times has characterized his relationship with me; Dr. Earl Kent Brown, of Boston University, for the diligent reading of this dissertation; my religious family, the Oblates of Mary Immaculate of the St. John the Baptist Province, U.S.A.; The Very Reverend Roger Roy, O.M.I., Provincial, and Mr. Raymond Tague, for making it possible for me to pursue a theological career; my most devoted secretary and consultant, Sr. Françoise C. Tessier, P.M. for her friendship and utmost dedication; my professors at Oblate College and Seminary, Natick, Massachusetts, The late Reverend Normand Beauchesne, O.M.I., my brother, The Reverend Alban LeHoullier, O.M.I. and The Reverend Maurice Savard, O.M.I., for having initiated me to the disciplines of Scripture and Theology; The Reverend Donald W. Arel, O.M.I. and The Reverend Charles A. Breault, O.M.I., my confrères at 60 Old Colony Road, for their concern, their constant encouragement and help; The Reverend Clarence C. Ménard, O.M.I., The Reverend Lucien J. Richard, O.M.I. and Sr. Helen Wright, S.N.D., for their support and academic assistance; and very devoted friends, Mrs. Ghislaine Parenteau and Sr. Ellen Veinotte, S.N.D.