Following on from the success of his first critically acclaimed “Buster plays Buster” Buster Birch returns with a brand new show. This time featuring the screening of a different classic Buster Keaton movie “Steamboat Bill Jr” with live accompaniment from the Buster Birch jazz quartet as well as a special presentation “The Life of Buster Keaton”

*“This show is not just a surprise, it’s a real treat. This audience loved it. I defy anyone not to.”
Chris Howes, THE BROOK THEATRE, Chatham*

“Funny. Breathtaking. Delightful” THE HALIFAX FESTIVAL

*“Buster Plays Buster was a magical evening. Buster Birch's score was meticulously crafted to fit with the film. A number of people commented on how much they had enjoyed the evening, including those who would not normally come to a jazz concert.”
THE WATERMILL JAZZ CLUB, Dorking*
