

30th April 04 - Last update of the month and it's a good one! After 6 weeks in the wilderness it's back...the GUESTBOOK! Added a games room, chat room and updated heaps, check it all out, sign the guestbook and please let me know what you think, it's important that I learn from this! 😊

27th April 04 - Right, have done a lot of tidying up here today, on most pages too - Updates to Formula 1 Calendar, put clock up on links page, added new links, sorted some continuity errors and...wait for it...I have yet another pic! It's my lovely, shiny car (Clint to those in the know) that I spent 4, yes that's 4 hours cleaning yesterday:

26th April 04 - You want an update, you got one...added a poll, which you MUST register a vote on and removed the hated clock, HAPPY, lol! 😊

21st April 04 - OK, so today I have the most amazing thing for you, a free game, a first person shooter, it's only 96k, I mean come on, you will not believe this and you can download it by clicking below:

The developers <http://www.theprodukt.com/> set minimum requirements at a 1.5 GHz processor and a newer generation graphics accelerator such as a Nvidia GeForce 4Ti or ATI Radeon 8500 with 128 MByte memory as well as support for pixel shaders 1.3 and DirectX 9.0b. Just enjoy, hope you have the specs!!

15th April 04 - Well...back at work yesterday, how happy am I! 😊 Now, some people may think that's a bit mad but it keeps me off the streets! Did you guys enjoy the break? The thing that I'd like to talk about was going to see The Passion of Christ (Jesus flick), how heavy was that film? Must admit I did find it really interesting, especially the fact that there were not very many people involved in both the persecution of Jesus and the amount of followers he had! Go and see it but be prepared for some serious gore! Have 'some' updating to do today, I have tweaked every page, added some more links (Thanks Miss Black Widow), the competition 'Spot the Ball' answer and this blog <http://gad123.blogspot.com/> I don't know whether to continue with it to track my daily ramblings and use this site as more of a static platform, what do you guys think? To be honest I don't think I have that much to moan about, well maybe to you lot but the world?? Anyway if you want to have a go, sign up at www.blogspot.com/ I know it's what some of you are looking for! I cant believe its nearly yet another weekend, where is my life going to! Have a question, do I ditch the clock? Sticking with the hick, desperado, cowboy thing - "Y'all come back now, ya hear?"

Today's thought: See if I get on more piece of junk e mail with the subject line:

:::Mike gave me your address:::

I am going to throw my computer out the nearest window! Grrr... 😡 Who the feck is Mike anyway and how does he know every porn site on the web?

11th April 04 - HAPPY EASTER Y'ALL! All I can really say is HeHe! Wonder how long this will stay here:

5th April 04 - So...have done a little work to the site, trying to keep it fresh for you guys! Added a new competition on the quiz page, surprisingly, was going to add it to the ramblings page but I thought it would upset the flow of the site! 😬 Changed the background but I am not really feeling it, let me know what you think as the eye candy side is probably the most important to me! Changed lots of other little things that were bugging me to make the whole experience more interesting! Hope you all had a great weekend! OH...almost forgot a little pic of the cows as seen from my bedroom window!

FAAAR AWAY...

29th March 04 - Went to an open day at my Primary School (remember it being so much bigger, weird that?!), here are a couple of pics:

Changed layout back because everyone hated it so much and you never know the guestbook may make a return too, you see I am just a slave to my public, hehe! 😬 I am off to see Dawn of the Dead tomorrow (guess who with, lol), watched the original again, I will let you know how it goes, its got alot to live up to! Anyway...hope you all had a great weekend and enjoy what the rest of the week has to offer!

17th March 04 -

DAY EVERYONE

15th March 04 - Mondays over, yeah! 😊

Came across this today: <http://www.dawnofthedeadmovie.net/> The greatest horror film ever made - REMADE! I so can't wait, anyone wanna go see it with me? Trust me, this is one not to be missed, especially if you have not see the original (released 25 years ago)! Moved around some stuff today on the site, added some more links, put up a little tribute to my lighter which got nicked on Saturday night (SCUM - whoever you are!) and posted some new photos, so don't forget to check all the pages! Your comments are very welcome, how can I improve this site and what do you wanna see? I think its quite interesting but then what do I know about this sort of thing?? For anyone who has not entered the quiz there is now a PRIZE on offer, not one person has got them all right yet, so get in for a chance of winning, only 2 days left!!

Today's thought; My rents were married 44 years ago last Sunday, how mad is that!?

The Streets new track is on Radio1 tonight, the first play! I wonder what it will be like, the title sounds spot on - Fit But You Know It...

13th March 04 - Here is a little photo from Sat night, took my niece to CUBA for her 21sy birthday www.cubanightclub.com:

12th March 04 - Its Friday - HAPPY DAYS - I added a few more links today and the photos are still to follow...I am taking my niece out for her 21st tomorrow sooooo hope to get some crazy photos form that to post! Thanks for the feed back on the clock/date thing, I love it too (hehe)! Also thanks for the guestbook entries, whoever you are? 4th March 2004 - I call this Creative advertising (I should do this for a living!!):

3rd March 2004 - Tip of the day: Make sure those virus def's are up to date as I am now getting mail containing viruses over 5 times a day and I don't want anyone caught out!!

Also added a new link: Vast Nightclub listings and lots of other Club related stuff:
<http://www.nightclubbinuk.com/>

2nd March 2004 - F1 www.formual1.com starts this weekend, I can't wait! Still fancy Alonzo to be up there this year and Shu to win! Have no idea what to do with the site now, don't want it becoming stale, like any of you lot care! More photo's is the way to go I think, will also find something interesting to put on the ramblings page!

One other thought today - THE DATE - 020304

1st March 2004 - Well Monday's over and we are into a new month (my birthday one by the way), can't believe how quickly this year is going, must be cause I'm getting old, hehe! So lets see, have changed background, changed logo to a nice little animated one, am not to happy with it but it will do for now(it's maybe making the page load to slow)! Today I have mainly been pondering on "Our Glen sees dead people" and "When does the evening begin, I mean we know the afternoon starts at 12pm?" If you know mail me! - Weird, anyway...I awoke to this view from my window today:

25th February 2004 - D Day: My site is ready to leave the nest! I hope to be updating regularly (erm...), so check back and there should be something new to view! Please make suggestions, I want to create something worth while on my little place in cyber space, yeah right...watch this space and find out! 😊
