

Shri Poshkar Nath Koul “POSHMOT”

Mahatma Shri Poshkar Nath Koul “POSHMOT” left his Mortal frame on 18-02-2009 at his residence Yashoda Kunj, Shalimar Garden, Ext-II, Ghaziabad, U.P. The Sad and sudden demise has shocked the family & created the void in our community. Born on 15-11-1937 to Late Smt Leela Wati & Late Shri Ram Chandra Koul at Kanya Kadal Srinagar, Kashmir is survived by his Wife Smt.Kaushalya Koul, Son Shri.Pran Nath Koul & two daughters Mrs’Urmila Sadh & Mrs.Sunita Kuddha.

Our heart aches in grief for this irreparable loss. He was a noble, selfless man, who dedicated his life to the cause of Spirituality awakening. A towering personality Shri.Koul was a person of High Degree of Moral force by virtue of which he inspired everyone who so ever came in contact with him & commanded great respect.

We have lost a Mahatma who removed darkness of ignorance about the Knowledge of Gods existence.

Mahatma Shri Koul’s strenuous effort to renovate the Shrine of Lok Bhawan can hardly be effaced from the history of Kashmir. He saw to it that the place is fit for Spiritual awakening and worked Day & Night to fulfill his dream.

From my childhood, I saw in him a man of extraordinary courage & Patience. His wisdom coupled with devotion towards the Service of Humanity was a unique gift with him. He had firm faith in the Saying “Service of Mankind is Service of God” endowed with Spiritual wisdom and administrative acumen. He constructed with full dedication of devotion a Mandir of Maa Durga & two Dharam Shallas at Lok Bhawan which previously was a pool of Slush & Mud. A part from being a Saint he was the Author of numerous Publications like Posh Deil, Sankshipt Ramayana, Mahimna Par in Kashmiri Language & Mukhta Mall (The Vaakas) which highlighted his spiritual depth, an inner quest & strong desire to convey what he perceived the best in his Life Time.

He was a Karma Yogi who dedicated his Life putting into action his noble thoughts. Everyone Young & Old were moved by his Spiritual Excellencies, sincerity of purpose & valued guidance. He will be a source of inspiration for us for all the times to come.

He was a monument of his own Magnificence.

He shall ever remain enshrined in Hearts of all for his qualities of extreme patience & surrender which he valued most in Life.
