

Horizon - surveying a route for contemporary Christian thought

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Introduction

1. Life and world view: a philosophical analysis	1
2. A comparison between Bantu and Western thought. Outline for an exploratory discussion	19
5. The Gospel as a liberating power in the traditionally closed, static culture of the Black peoples of Africa	50
4. The evolutionistic life and world view	79
5. The importance of a Scripture-based Ontology	92
6. Radical Biblical Anthropology	101
7. The meaning of the expression "created in the image and likeness of God"	120
8. The relationships of man: a studium generale	131
9. The value and task of Philosophy at the university	147
10. Ethics: theoretical or practical science?	167
11. In lumine Tuo videbimus lumen : integral Christian scholarship	183
12. Amazement at the marvellous	198
U. A few observations on the place and nature of scientific criticism	203
14. The profile of the twentieth century in the seventies on analysis of the contours of contemporary Western culture	207
15. Contemporary Western culture and counter-culture	218
16. Is the Christian-National principle Calvinistic?	242
17. Maturity: contours of a viewpoint	253
18. In the power of the Spirit. Spiritual readiness under Scriptural illumination	264

Contents of Heartbeat - taking the pulse of our theological and philosophical heritage (back flap)