

NOTHING IS WORTH IT IF YOU AREN'T HAPPY

DO WHAT YOU ARE

A self-reflection by:

Now that you completed the Do What You Are survey, you are going to analyze your report. For each section, you need a claim about yourself, many examples of evidence supporting the claim, and reasoning that explains how the given evidence supports your claim.

Describing YOU

Today you are You,
that is truer than true.
There is no one alive
who is Youer than You.

-Dr. Seuss

After reading your report, how would you describe your personality? (Make the answer to this question your claim) Give many examples of evidence in the form of direct quotes from the report. After each piece of evidence, give your reasoning on how this truly defines you or if you disagree (refute), go ahead and give reasoning.

CLAIM

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

What are Your Strengths and Weaknesses? Give many examples of evidence in the form of direct quotes from the report. After each piece of evidence, give your reasoning on how this truly defines you or if you disagree (refute), go ahead and give reasoning.

CLAIM Everyone has strengths and weaknesses and the key to finding my best path is by using my natural strengths and becoming aware of my natural blindspots.

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

What are some of your college and career satisfiers?

CLAIM Satisfiers are motivation givers and my career/college satisfiers are unique to me.

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

What is your learning style?

CLAIM Knowing my learning style helps me see what I need in order to maximize learning.

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

What is your negotiating style?

CLAIM After looking at my report, I see some strengths and blindspots that have the potential to influence my negotiations with others.

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

EVIDENCE

REASONING

