

Reading 6

1. In order to get back to Germany, Irene must first return to Ternopol. Mark it on the map. Why does this place sound familiar?
2. What had to be done before she could join her family?
3. Describe the “processing” line.
4. Why is one line much shorter?
5. Why does Irene want to pass as German? And do you think she will be successful at doing so?
6. Why are Polish people making admiring comments about Hitler? What does it mean that they had to “pretend to be German so we could finally be Polish again.”
7. What does Irene buy with money from Miriam?
8. Where is the safest place she can think to hide it?
9. What propaganda is pumped through the Russian speakers?
10. Who does Irene see walking towards her?
11. How does she think she knows them?
12. Where does she hope to hide?
13. What happens in the very last sentence of this chapter?
