Annual Meeting Minutes

The Host pastor, Chris Harris, opened the meeting and led the opening prayer.

Vice-Moderator, Jerry Duke officiated the service by welcoming everyone in Bro. Wilkerson's absence.

Jerry Harris, led the music and was accompanied on the piano by Marian Pendergrass. "I Am Resolved" was the opening song.

Lucille McFarlin called the roll of churches. Eleven churches were represented with a total of 48 messengers present.

Bro. Duke introduced Director of Missions, William Gray, to give the Missions report. Bro. Gray asked the new pastors to stand and introduce themselves and tell what church they were with. Bro. Andrew Allen, Interim Pastor at Mt. Zion Baptist and Bro. Leo Hagewood from Cumberland Furnace Baptist Church introduced themselves. They are a mission from Faith Baptist Church in Vanleer. As a part of the missions report, a demonstration was given on how easy it is to put out door knockers in your area. It was stressed that the weekend before Easter was a good time to pass out door knockers in the community to invite people to your Sunday service on Easter. Bro. Gray also shared how much it helped last year. He told about packets that can be ordered for this project.

Associational Secretary, Joe Shannon, told about the many Crossovers that he attended in the past year. He shared how people are coming to the Associational office to get saved.

Bro. Gray, assisted by Nathan Davis, gave a certificate to Bro. James Parham for New Hope being recognized as the top church in giving to the Cooperative Program. Jerry Harrison was given the one for Parker's Creek being the top church for the Lottie Moon Offering. VBS Director, Nathan Davis gave certificates for Standard VBS to White Bluff, Parker's Creek, Faith and New Hope Baptist Churches. The Associational Director shared his appreciation for the hard work Bro. Nathan has put into being the VBS Director. Bro. Gray also advised that he plans to distribute the Book of Minutes at the Christmas dinner. He also shared his appreciation to Bro. Duke for filling in for Bro. Wilkerson.

Bro. Donnie Craig of Liberty Baptist gave the devotional. Before he read his text, he shared his appreciation for the condolences he received at the passing of his father. His text was from Ecc. 7:1 was used during his father's service. He explained that a good name is better than "ointment" meaning JOY. He shared how when someone dies, there is usually a new birth that takes place showing that life will go on. We must leave a good name for the future generations. The Bible is true and we need to make sure that it is preached. Bro. Craig wore a medal his dad won in the military. It was a Bronze medal for his service. He got the medal for serving his country. We did not earn out salvation, it is a free gift of our Saviour. He then led the group in prayer.

Bro. Duke introduced Men's Ministry Director, Wilson Spencer, as the one to honor our deceased members of our Association. We all gave a round of applause in honor of the deceased.

The different departments gave an oral report starting with the Men's Ministry Director, Wilson Spencer. He discussed the various projects throughout the year. February was the Disaster Relief benefit that the proceeds were given to the TBC for a special project. In May the team responded to tornado disasters in Primm Springs. June was the Father-Child fishing event. In September everyone helped with the Crusade in ways such as putting up the tent and parking. Finally, October 2, they built a wheelchair ramp for one of the disabled neighbors. At the end of his report, he advised that he will be stepping down from his position due to many new aspects of his ministry.

VBS Director, Nathan Davis asked everyone for a ‘YEE HAW’. This year’s VBS was the Saddle Up Ranch. He was glad to see some using the Anytime Club materials. Preliminary numbers show over 900 enrolled. Next year’s theme is the “Big Apple Adventure” which explores New York. He asked for all numbers to be turned in to get the State report completed.

Bro. Gray gave an oral report on the Crusade. There were a total of 37 salvations. The baptisms were over 500 this year within the association. He encouraged all the churches to turn in their reports. He discussed the progress of the Associational building. He asked everyone who had helped on the project to stand to be honored and Bro. Willis Bledsoe was the only one present. Bro. Gray explained how we are 99% finished with the building. The good news is that no money will be owed on the building when it is completed. He advised that we still need a few things for the building. He hoped that at the beginning of the year, Bible classes will be held there. He counts it as a miracle for God’s service. New Hope and Missionary Ridge collected over $800 each in pennies for the building fund. He emphasized that the building was not the main thing, instead it was bringing people to Christ. He thanked the Building Committee for their hard work.

Treasurer, Lucille McFarlin, gave the Treasurer’s Report which included the proposed budget. She advised that it did not change from last year. She pointed out the page showing the report for the year.

Discipleship Director, Allen Cochran advised that “M” night has been moved to Faith Baptist in Vanleer on October 25.

The Vice-Moderator asked if there was a motion to accept the Associational Department reports. Motion was seconded and passed.

He also asked if there was a motion to accept the Treasurer’s Report. Motion was seconded and passed.

Sis. Mary Donegan gave the Annual Meeting report. She commented that at the Crusade there were 6 rededications and 47 decisions. She gave the information regarding the next two Annual meetings.

The Vice-Moderator asked once more if there was a motion and second to accept the Annual Meeting report. Motion passed.

A call for Old Business was given, but none was addressed.

New Business was called and Bro. Cletus Tidwell brought up the fact that he needed to rotate off “Link-Up Committee. He made the motion to have the Moderator and Vice-Moderator as Link-Up representatives. The motion was seconded and passed.

Bro. Gray asked if someone wanted to give a Nominating Committee report. It was brought to everyone’s attention that the positions needed to be filled were Sunday School Director, Men’s Ministry Director, Disaster Relief Coordinator, Media Library, Assistant VBS Director and Volunteer Missions Director. Since this comes from a committee, no motion or second was required. The floor was opened for questions or nominations. A call for the vote to accept this report was given and it passed.

An offering was taken for the WMU Endowment in honor of Kathleen Pendergrass. Jerry Harrison led the offeratory prayer.

The Vice-Moderator introduced Bro. Archer Tharpe From the TBC. The new Executive Director of the TBC sent a video message for us to view. He gave figures showing how much our state has grown since the 1950's. He reminded us there is still a lot of work to be done. He thanked us all for joining hearts and hands for Christ. Bro. Tharpe expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to work with our association. He commented on many projects that the TBC has been a part of in the last year. He also encouraged everyone to support the association financially. In response to Bro. Craig's dad, he thanked God for all our families. He told a story of how his grandson was born on his birthday and how special that was to him.

Bro. Jerry Harrison and Sis. Marian Pendergrass were asked to come again and lead a congregational song before the message. The song was "At Calvary."

Bro. Cecil Gilliland of Maple Grove was introduced as the one to bring the message. Mark 2:1-12 was his text. He reminded us that we as God's people have a responsibility to bring the Word to a dying world. He believes we are living in the last days and we must have HOPE.

He gave the illustration that if we had a celebrity present, we probably would have a packed house, but we have someone who is much better, JESUS CHRIST!

We all can pray and encourage one another to have HOPE in CHRIST. It takes our FAITH in Jesus to reach a lost and dying world.

The invitation song was "Just As I Am," led by Bro. Jerry and accompanied by Sis. Marian.

Prior to leaving, Bro. Gray acknowledged our visitors.

Bro. Allen Cochran advised that 15 from the New Life Lodge that were saved at the Crusade.

Br. John Murphy and his wife, Alta May are moving into the Bon Aqua area. He has been in the ministry for 50 years.

Our Missions Director thanked Eastside Baptist for their hospitality in letting the Association use their facilities as well as the messengers and Bro. Archer for their assistance during the meeting.

Bro. Leo Hagewood from Cumberland Furnace was asked to lead the benediction.

Men's Ministry Report

Annual Meeting October 16,2010

In February, we held our annual Disaster Relief Benefit at Parker's Creek with a Chili Supper and Singing. The proceeds went to the Tennessee Baptist Convention for the construction of a Missions Mobilization Center. Bro. David Acres, State Disaster Relief Director was present to receive the funds.

In May, our disaster relief unit responded after the devastating storms that came through. We helped to clean up tornado damage in the Primm Springs area, along with Bro. Ken and some youth from Parker's Creek.

In June, we once again encouraged Fathers to spend time with their children by taking advantage of "Free Fishing Day" in Tennessee.

In September, several men stepped up to erect the tent for our annual Crusade, and we also had volunteers to help with parking.

On October 2, some men from New Hope built a wheelchair ramp for an older gentleman in our community.

WMU Reports from Churches

Liberty:

Our WMU participated in many mission offerings throughout the year. We gave to the scheduled mission offerings. We also gave to CareNet Pregnancy Medical Center in Dickson as well as Small World Ministries. We gave the Hope Center of Waverly many boxes of clothes and toys. We used the mission offering from VBS this year to give to a local flood victim. We gave 11 boxes to the Samaritan's Purse for their Operation Christmas Child program and we donated money to buy pigs from the Gospel for Asia Christmas catalog. We collected tabs from aluminum cans to give to the Ronald McDonald House throughout the year. We are so thankful to our LORD for all He has done to bless us this year so that we in turn could bless others in His Name. All glory to Him!
