

6th Annual JSU Jazz Festival

DATE: March 31, 2017

TIME: 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

CONCERT: Noon
Leone Cole Auditorium
Featuring Ashlin Parker and
JSU Jazz Ensemble I

PLACE: Jacksonville State
University

REGISTRATION
DEADLINE: March 20th,
2017

FEE: $125

The goal of the Jacksonville State University Jazz Festival is to provide students and directors with a positive educational and musical experience in jazz. Maximum interaction between students, directors, and guest clinicians will take place throughout the day, highlighted by clinics on every instrument. The festival is noncompetitive.

Clinicians will provide written and verbal feedback to the directors and students. Each band will have at least 20 minutes to warm up. Each band will be allowed approximately 25 minutes to perform (this includes setup and tear down), followed immediately by a 25-30 minute clinic, on stage.

AWARDS • Festival clinicians will award outstanding individual performers from each ensemble • Each participating ensemble will receive a video of its performance and audio files from the adjudicators (via Dropbox up to ten days after the event) • Each participating school will be awarded a commemorative plaque

Clinicians

Dr. Andy Nevala
Dr. Tony McCutchen
Dr. Dave Lambert
Dr. Chris Probst
Chris Enghauser
Kenyan Carter
Ben Weatherford
And Many More

REGISTRATION FORM

(all groups) $125

__ College __ High School __ Jr. High __ Middle

Director

School

Address

City State Zip

Phone

Email

Signature

Date

Deadline is March 20th

Mail the registration form and check (made payable to David L. Walters Department of Music) to the address below. You will receive confirmation of your festival registration by e-mail. Detailed information including performance times, maps, clinicians, and more will be emailed 2 weeks prior to the festival.

Dr. Andy Nevala
Director of Jazz Studies
David L. Walters Department of Music
700 Pelham Road North
Jacksonville, AL, 36265